

The Ten Principles of the UN Global Compact

Corporate sustainability starts with a company's value system. Responsible businesses enact the same values and principles wherever they have a presence, and know that good practices in one area do not offset harm in another. By incorporating the Ten Principles into strategies, policies and procedures, and establishing a culture of integrity, companies are not only upholding their basic responsibilities to people and planet, but also setting the stage for long-term success.

How companies operate

- HUMAN RIGHTS
1. Businesses should support and respect the protection of internationally proclaimed human rights; and
 2. make sure that they are not complicit in human rights abuses.

- LABOUR
3. Businesses should uphold the freedom of association and the effective recognition of the right to collective bargaining;
 4. the elimination of all forms of forced and compulsory labour;
 5. the effective abolition of child labour; and
 6. the elimination of discrimination in respect of employment and occupation.

- ENVIRONMENT
7. Businesses should support a precautionary approach to environmental challenges;
 8. undertake initiatives to promote greater environmental responsibility; and
 9. encourage the development and diffusion of environmentally friendly technologies.

- ANTI-CORRUPTION
10. Businesses should work against corruption in all its forms, including extortion and bribery.
